
Insuletics Limited
Anti-Slavery Policy

HR Policy 1
Appendix 11
Issue 1
Date December 2015

Approved by: Ian Coates

IMPLEMENTATION

The Managing Director has specific responsibility for the effective implementation of this policy. Each Director, Manager and Supervisor also has responsibilities and we expect all of our employees to abide by the policy and help create a transparent environment regarding Anti-Slavery within its company, in line with the Modern Slavery Act of 2015.

In order to implement this policy, we will ensure that:

Insuletics Ltd will be committed to maintaining and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that Slavery is not taking place anywhere within its business and that of its consultants, agents, supply chain and associated others.

Modern Slavery is a criminal act and is a violation of a person's human rights. The deprivation of a person's liberty by another, to exploit them for personal or commercial gain is unacceptable to Insuletics and Insuletics have adopted a zero tolerance to this kind of behaviour.

This ethos has been relayed to Insuletics staff members and they have been advised to report any incidents they know or hear of in the workplace and / or through its association with others.

The detection and reporting of slavery is the responsibility of all of us. Concerns should be raised about any issue or suspicion of modern slavery in any part of Insuletics, its Parent Company and associated others, at the earliest possible stage.

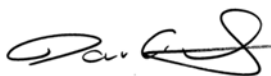

Staff members should acquaint themselves with the confidential reporting procedures set out in Insuletics Whistleblowing Policy which is saved the Companies A Drive,

This Policy will be updated when new Legislation dictates.

Date: 15 December 2015

Signed:

Ian Coates

Managing Director